NAIDOC DAY CELEBRATIONS

Yesterday the students enjoyed our early NAIDOC Day celebrations. Mrs ‘Aunty Nancy’ Rooke welcomed us to country and spoke of the precious possum skin cloak. The history of the cloak is special to our local area and the detailed art work is magnificent. Brandon Kennedy played his didgeridoo for us exceptionally well. The students participated in workshops run by the Murray Conservatorium. We thank Mr David Noonan and AWAHS for generously donating the sausage sizzle for our lunch and Mr Dent and Mr Foard for cooking the sausages.

Our NAIDOC Day celebration was a wonderful, culturally rich experience for Glenroy Public School students.

HEAD LICE
As we have had numerous incidents of Head Lice at the school over the last week please can you check your child/childrens hair.

P & C NEWS
ANOTHER MONTH, ANOTHER MEETING
When will the fun end?
Our P & C are once again gathering next week for our monthly meeting. This month the focus will be on plans for our Fete for next year and the start of discussions for the school’s 40th Anniversary in 2016. Join in and give us your thoughts and ideas.
Wed 17 June, 7.30pm (we normally finish around 9pm)

KEEP OUR CHERUBS WARM
There they are, shivering during our winter days. Save your child from the winter blues and send them in with $1.00 to buy hot chocolate from the SRC. On both Monday’s and Tuesday’s our hard working SRC are brewing up a storm and selling lovely warm cuppas at lunchtime.

HOW TO COVER A BOOK
Thanks to those that have offered to help with covering the new school readers. There are still a pile of a couple of hundred awaiting their special treatment and so if you have any time then your help will be welcomed. Just let our lovely and efficient office staff know and they will give you everything you need.
