PRINCIPAL’S COMMENT

TINY TREASURES
One of the most important days of the year finally arrived and we had seventeen pre-to-school students arrive for a fun-packed morning. I had the pleasure of meeting parents and students and after some tears, they dived in! We look like having large kindergarten numbers again next year. If you know of anyone who has a child ready for school in 2016, please send them in to say hello.

CONTACT NUMBERS
Please ensure that you have provided the school with current contact numbers. Parents /carers who are not providing contact numbers are jeopardising the safety and educational progress of their child. It is simply a matter of contacting our School Office Manager-Helene Van Zetten by phone or calling in at the school.

DROPPING OFF AND COLLECTING YOUR CHILDREN
I never understand why some parents would jeopardize the safety of their children and the children of others by parking inappropriately. There are plenty of advisory signs indicating where you can and cannot park-please obey them. I have mentioned in previous newsletters that there are plenty of carparks available at the back of the school in Caitlyn Avenue and Bunton Street. PLEASE BE CONSIDERATE.

CONCERTS
Tickets are selling fast for the Glenroy Public School Concert on Tuesday 15/9/2015. Tickets are available through the school office. Our school concert is not to be confused with our combined Northern Spirit Concert on Wednesday 2/9/2015. Details included in the newsletter.

AFTER SCHOOL SPORT- BASKETBALL
Another great week of basketball! I am so happy and impressed to see all the children’s progress since their first session. No doubt they will be playing for the Australian Boomers or Opals next year!

100 DAYS OF CALENDAR!
On Wednesday KC and KL celebrated 100 days of calendar and what a celebration it was! KC and KL tried out the kitchen for the first time and it was a success! The cookies not only looked fabulous but also tasted delicious. Mr. Dent can second that 😊 The classes were lucky enough to get a visit from Mr. Dent right as the cookies came out. We also cut up strawberries, grapes, bananas, oranges and apples and dipped them into creamy strawberry yoghurt! Yummy!!!
The banana smoothies came out a treat. I wonder what we will do to celebrate 150 days of calendar!

P & C NEWS
IT RAINED, THEN IT RAINED, AND THEN IT RAINED EVEN MORE
We were all set to start planting out Little Nail Can today (Thursday) but the boggy, soggy, muddy conditions in the space would have meant a messy old place for all of us. While I am sure a lot of students would have loved a mud bath we didn’t think any parents would have enjoyed the extra mud we would have sent home. The planting is now postponed until next week – Thursday 3rd September.
After a recent donation of even more plants we will be getting around 800 plants into the ground. What fun.

FATHER’S DAY STALL FRIDAY 4 SEPTEMBER
I don’t imagine any of the fellas will be able to read this bit of the newsletter as their eyes fill with tears of excitement. Yes, it is that time of year again when the special blokes in our children’s lives get showered with gifts they didn’t realise they needed. So please send in some money next week so a little something special can be bought from our Father’s Day stall. There are gifts priced from 50cents to $5.
P & C MEETING BETTER THAN TELEVISION
Thanks so much to the wonderful Susan O’Shea for attending the P & C Meeting last week and updating us on all of the great things happening at the school.

ENJOY SUPERKIDS AS MUCH AS SHAKESPEARE
Did you know that in Shakespeare’s time it was OK to shout, hoot and holler in appreciation to the actors on stage? Well, in Glenroy Public School tradition our performances are always a bit like a football crowd meets a Shakespeare crowd. I am always certain the students know we appreciate their performances and it certainly adds to the atmosphere. I am already practicing my wolf whistle!
Is this a picture of Shakespeare or Mr Dent?
